

ZACHARY CONSTRUCTION GROUP

COMMUNITY IMPACT

The story of Zachary Construction Group is woven into the fabric of St. Paul's historic Rondo neighborhood. Born out of a deep connection to the community, the Zachary family has carried forward a tradition of resilience, craftsmanship, and service. For decades, Rondo has been more than just a place—it has been a symbol of family, culture, and perseverance in the face of adversity.

From these roots, Zachary Construction emerged not only as a builder of homes and businesses but as a builder of opportunities. Guided by values of integrity, transparency, and excellence, the company has committed itself to projects that create real impact: jobs for local workers, mentorship for minority contractors, and spaces that serve families for generations to come.

Louis Zachary, President of Zachary Construction, has spent his career championing purposeful building. With decades of experience in real estate and construction, Louis leads with a focus on quality, equity, and community partnerships. His leadership emphasizes transparency with clients, mentorship for the next generation of builders, and a long-term vision for sustainable neighborhood growth.

OUR COMMITMENT TO RONDO

Steven Zachary, Vice President, brings deep expertise in finances, Insurance, and risk management. Known for his hands-on approach and commitment to detail, Steven ensures projects not only meet industry standards but also reflect the values of the Rondo community. His work bridges excellence with personal accountability, helping Zachary Construction remain a trusted name in the region.

Today, Zachary Construction is recognized as more than a construction firm—it is a community partner.

STUBS PLAY an important part in the life of Percy Zachary, right in the photo while he maintains his importance in the Minnesota football picture. Here they look on — Stuart...

*Louis Levi Co-Founder of Rondo Days

By advocating for minority inclusion in contracting, investing in local talent, and leading projects that revitalize neighborhoods, the group ensures that Rondo's legacy is not only remembered but renewed.

Every foundation laid, every wall raised, and every project completed carries the imprint of Rondo's spirit—a spirit of determination and hope. Through its work, Zachary Construction is helping to write the next chapter of the community's story: one of growth, equity, and lasting impact.

